EO-PW-01 Leadership Position - Looking for a leadership position in Wisconsin in a non-profit faith based organization that values each resident and provides an environment that supports the staff who are the most important resource.

With over 30 years of management experience in long-term care I am committed to providing high quality standards of operation and care, compassion to those we serve and to lead with a servants heart. I have experience in the development of new programs including the start-up of assisted living from pre-construction through post-construction. I have experience in sales, budgeting, planning, executing, supervising and evaluating all operational management. I have reported to and worked with Boards of Directors as well as served on various volunteer boards throughout my career.

If you feel my qualifications and experience might be a good fit for your community, please contact Pam Walker at (608) 255-7060, and ask for information on #EO-PW-01. The LeadingAge Wisconsin office has my resume on file.
